Come see what Sharing Meadows has to offer you & your other abled child!

The front of the Guest House

A place like no other...

Sharing Meadows is a community of other abled adults who live complete, independent, dignified lives with and among their peers. Each other abled adult, or villager, lives in a house with another villager and a steward, who is a fully abled adult who assists and lives with them on a daily basis. Every day the villagers share the work of keeping up the 185 acre grounds and buildings. After work they participate in recreational activities and work on their personal goals set by the Residential Coordinator. The Villagers thrive in an environment in which they feel safe and loved and where they are encouraged to be who they are meant to be.

The Guest House at Sharing Meadows offers families of other abled children the opportunity to come and experience the hope and joy that life has to offer for other abled adults at Sharing Meadows.

A home away from home...

Each of the three bedrooms in the guest house has a private bath and sleeps up to three. There is also a large common room with a fireplace and plenty of room to relax after visiting the grounds. The fully equipped kitchen is available for your use.

With plenty of windows and a fully screened in porch the guest house allows you to fully enjoy the beautiful surroundings. Situated next to Tucker Lake in the heart of the 185 acre Sharing Meadows property, the Guest House gives you access to all of the villages as well as many trails and paths which wind throughout the property.

A perfect place to bring the family!

Dennis Blaney, who is the founder and president of Share Foundation, or Kathleen Kelly, who is the Executive Director.
