FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

For me, I am celebrating my 60th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood. It has been a very enjoyable 60 years that passed by very quickly! It is hard to realize all that has happened. God has been very kind and helpful. Thanks be to God! I am by nature truly a bungler, but God has given me many successes! And there have been many people who have helped to finish the various activities in my priestly life. And many people helped make my human life very enjoyable – my fishing friends, card players, traveling companions, etc. God bless all of you!

I hope that all the fathers of children also enjoy their life and the lives they have brought forth! God bless you and continue in you his creative actions and love!

CAMP ENTERTAINMENT

Camp starts this month and we are looking forward to another meaningful summer experience for our campers and staff. Emily Barsic, our camp coordinator, has done a great job organizing the camp program but she still needs a few people to provide entertainment. If you clown, sing, dance, play an instrument, tell stories, perform magic, or entertain in any other way, we have just the venue for you. We can promise you an enthusiastic audience who will give you affirmation and love and truly appreciate your performance. Give Emily a call at 219-778-2585 or email her at camp@sharefoundation.org and she will schedule your performance for a time convenient for you.

Come and share your time and talents with our loving campers and see for yourself what a special place Camp Sharing Meadows is! Hidden Winner: Rita Tuel, Michigan City 46360

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Bill Harmon

There are times in every person’s life where they need a voice of reason to guide them to help facilitate a decision. For me, that person has always been my father. My dad always seems to know exactly what to say when I have a difficult decision ahead of me. He is truly an inspiration to me and I am thankful for his wisdom and guidance.

Looking back to my first ever article as executive director in January, I gave you insight on how I first started working with the other abled at the young age of four. Because of Dad’s disability and having to stop working, I was able to volunteer with a local organization that worked with other abled children. Of course volunteering was such a joy, but what I feel had even greater impact on my childhood was seeing my Dad’s kindness and love in action with those kids, many of which were similar in age to me. These memories drive me on a daily basis here at Sharing Meadows and molded me into the person I am today.

Dad has always held my siblings and I to a high standard by simply living out kindness and love in his own life. He taught all of us that success is not measured by how much money is in your bank account, but by how one treats his or her family, and those around them. To most, it would seem that my Dad had everything taken away from him when he lost his eyesight, but what THEY don’t see is that he gained so much, a testament to his deep faith in our God’s plan. He and my Mother both have carefully and tirelessly constructed a fun-loving and caring family. I am proud to be my Father’s son, and I hope that one day, when I celebrate Father’s Day as a parent, my children look at me as fondly as I look at him.

Happy Father’s Day to all of the Dad’s out there!
